VOLUME 32, THE ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF URBANA HIGH SCHOOL,
URBANA, ILLINOIS . . . A SCHOOL OF 821 STUDENTS AND 34 TEACHERS.

Rosemary of 1941

"There's Rosemary---that's for remembrance"---Shakespeare.

Dear Diary:

At last I am a senior . . . three happy years of high school life have passed.

My last few semesters have been such active ones that this year I took it upon myself to list all my school studies and activities in four different sections.

The main divisions will be:

Classes—We Study.....page 9

Organizations—We Meet..page 41

Athletics—We Play .....page 81

Features—We Win Support.....page 119

We Dedicate

Miss Ruth Cade

To Miss Cade . . . for her superior work as Senior class adviser . . . for her fine teaching ability, along with the memories of the noisy typing classes . . . for her loyal and unselfish service to all . . . for her delightful personality, which, through all our four years at Urbana High has added a most gracious element to our student life . . . and for her pleasant and cooperative manner . . . we dedicate to Miss Ruth Cade our annual, the Rosemary of 1941.

As we frequently saw Miss Cade

Our Chief Administrators

Supt. T. H. Cobb

The Urbana Board of Education considers our wants and our needs in a conscientious manner. Despite financial difficulties, they endeavor to maintain the high standards of the Urbana school system. They give willingly of their time and effort to manage our school, and we appreciate everything they have done for us.

Heading our school system is Mr. T. H. Cobb, superintendent. His cooperation, enthusiasm, and fairness have won for him a place of highest regard in the estimation of the townspeople as well as the student body.

BOARD MEMBERS: Mrs. H. W. Huegy, Mr. F. J. Keilholz, Mr. Carl Parks, Pres. Dr. B. S. Hopkins, Mr. Paul Busey, Mr. W. V. Davis, Mr. Frank Corray, Supt. T. H. Cobb.

Our Principal

PLANNING A SCHEDULE:
Dick Phillips, Mr. S. B. Hadden

With a new arrangement, a new office secretary, new files, and new deans, the office very efficiently took care of attendance, announcements, files, plus a very odd assortment of extra duties.

Our well-liked principal, Mr. S. B. Hadden, had the assistance of the newly organized "Officettes." This group was composed of girls who worked in the office at different hours of the day, collecting attendance slips and running errands. Miss Ruth Smith, the new secretary, was always willing to help everyone at anytime.

The new deans were a great help to all. Much of the work that used to be done in the main office, was turned over to the very capable Miss Fisher and Mr. Youmans.

A TYPICAL OFFICE SCENE: Chuck Pollard, Miss Ruth Smith, Bill Klingelhoffer.

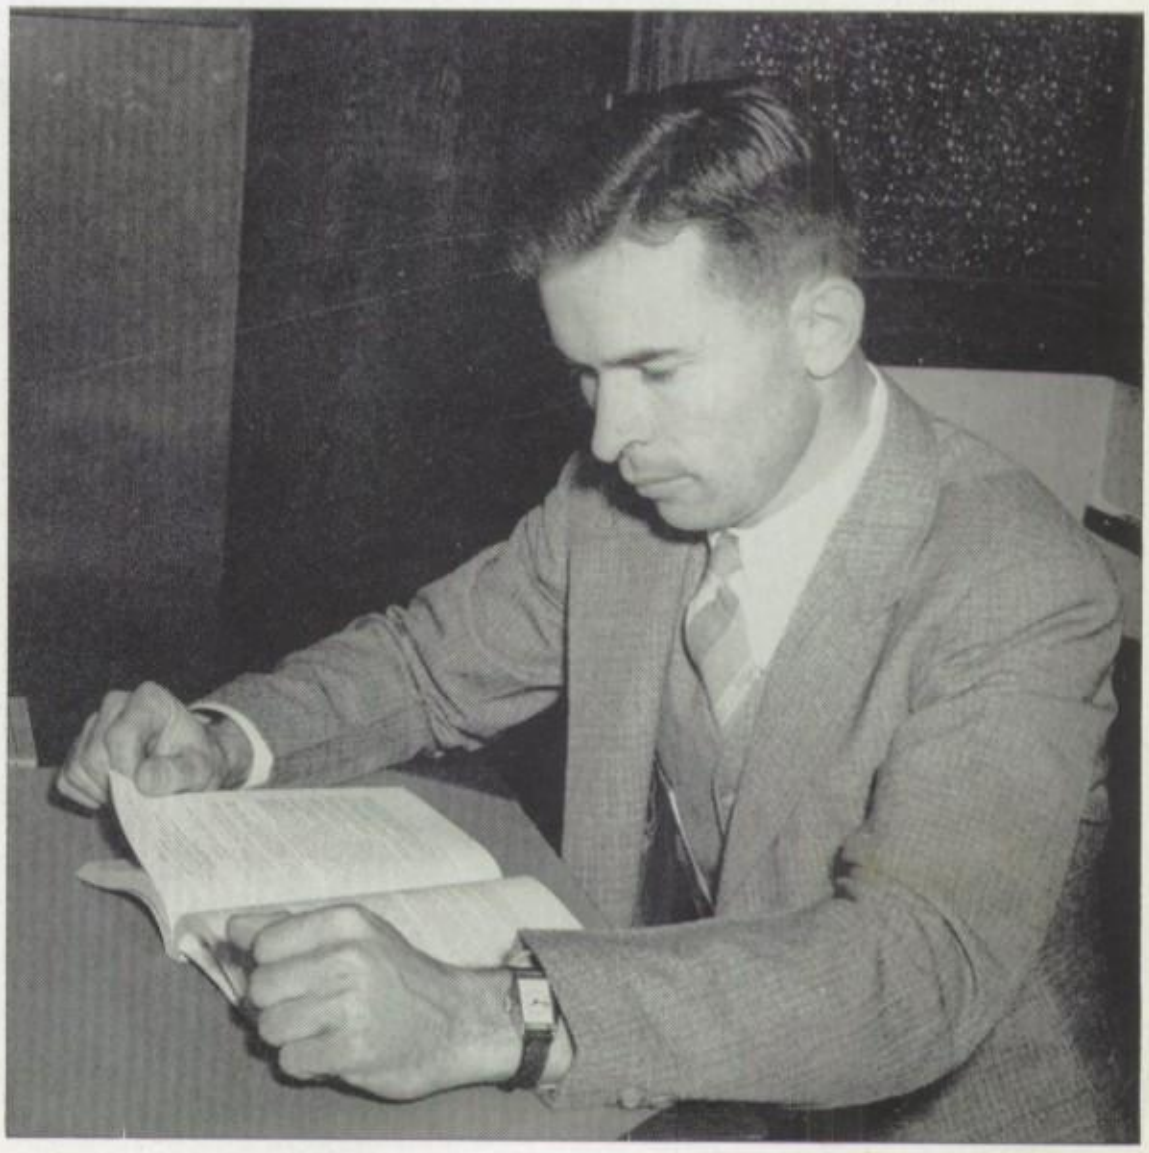
Our Deans

Miss Fisher, dean of girls, has been kept busy the whole year fulfilling her duties as shorthand teacher, homeroom teacher, and sponsor of S. K.'s, as well as maintaining the post of counselor to all the girls in the school. Mr. Youmans, dean of boys, has not only helped the individual boy, but has capably taken Miss Ricketts' place as Assistant Principal, retained two of his geometry classes and had charge of the boy's intramural teams.

While handling the routine business of absentees and tardinesses, the two deans kept in mind the primary job of helping girls and boys with their individual problems. Each member of the student body has an individual reason for being glad to have Miss Fisher and Mr. Youmans as his dean.

Miss Sarah Fisher . . . Dean of Girls

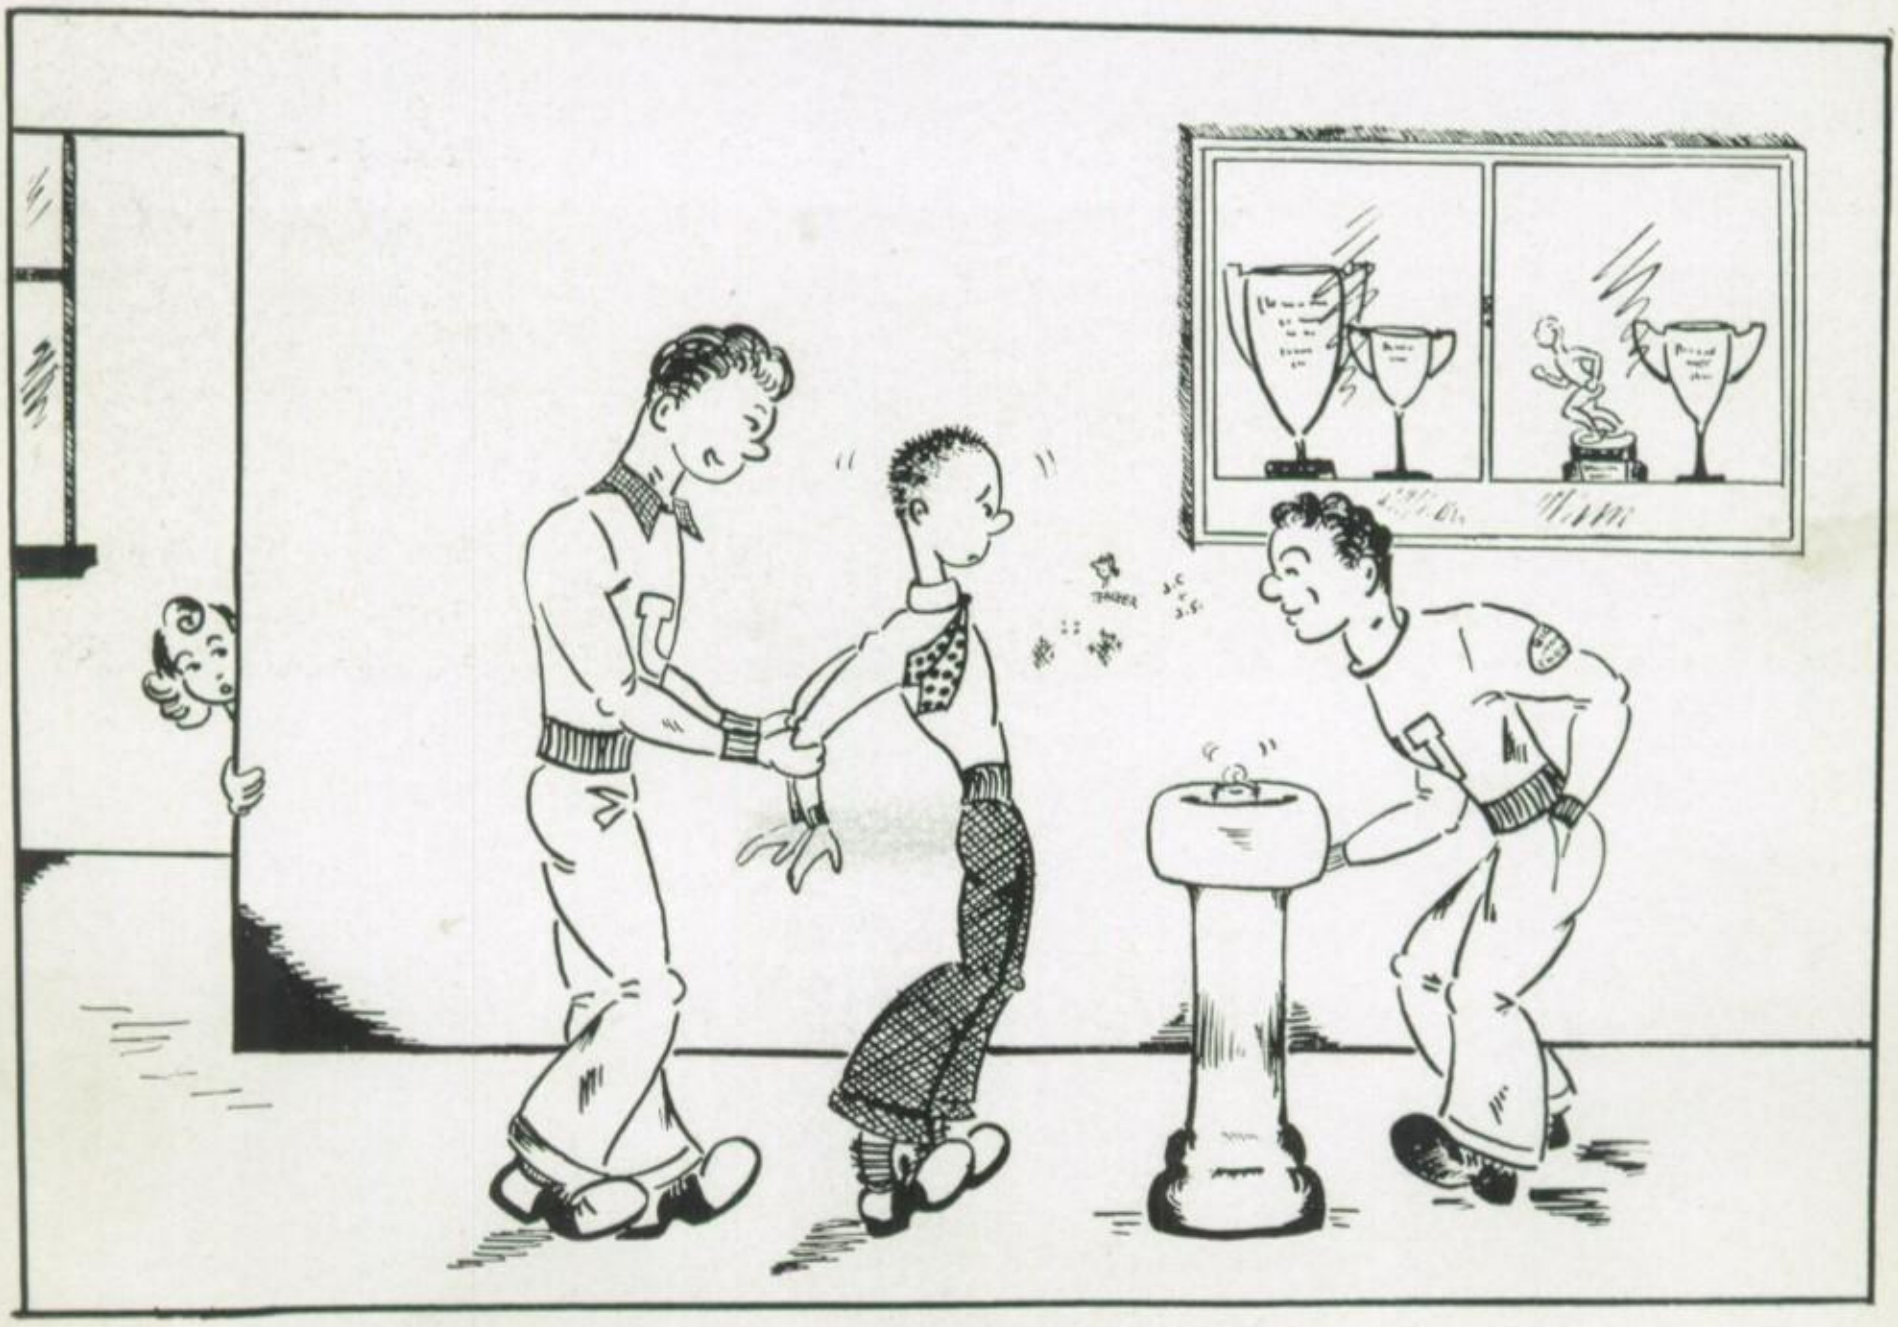
Mr. Clark Youmans . . . Dean of Boys



November 5

Grade cards . . . honorary societies . . . class activities . . . there is always something for us to be working for.

Seniors with Alpha Psi Omega, Sagamore, and graduation . . . Juniors with Psi, the class play, and Prom committees . . . Sophomores with Lambda and the feeling of superiority toward their younger school mates . . . Freshmen with Alpha and the general confusion. All these added together make the four happy years of high school life.



We Study

Au Revoir

Just four short years ago we, the class of 1941 entered the stately building of Urbana High as freshmen . . . innocent, yet eager to learn all. The next year we were known to be the peppiest sophomore class yet to be found. Last year, one of the happiest years of our lives, we worked together to put on the Junior Play and the Prom . . . we took much pride in selecting our class rings. In our senior year, we achieved high honors in athletics, musicals, and worked hard on the Senior Play, class day, and graduation exercises. Yes . . . we have been a class that has been willing to work for what we have accomplished and we will continue to work toward higher goals.

Now that the time has arrived for us to part with our close friends, our teachers, and even the building whose halls we traversed each morning and evening, it is hard for us to realize that we will no longer walk through the school doors, talk between classes, study, or sit in assembly with many of our high school chums.

So . . . to all our happy and well spent high school days, we give one long, lasting . . . Au Revoir!

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS:

Max Kelley, President; John Cobb, Vice-President; Marilyn Kerr, Rosemary Representative; Clyde Rusk, Treasurer; Chuck Wikoff, Secretary.

Junior Home Rooms

MR. TILBURY'S HOME ROOM . . .

We found our home room quite well situated. By leaning out of the window and waving and yelling we were able to communicate with those getting their pictures taken.

Row 1—Stewart F., Goddard, Gossett, Gepner, Gudgel, Foote, Grob.

Row 2—Frank, Green R., Harmon, Tillitson, Fritzen, Froman R., Geissendorfer, Gebhart.

Row 3—Mr. Tilbury, Frison, Entler, Franklin, Goens T., Fiscus, Emmert, Gougler.

Row 1—Butler, Rollins, Birt, Busey, Bauman, Brown, P. Brown, M. Brown, Cummings, Amerman.

Row 2—Campbell, Bryant, Bauer, Case, Boas, Arie, Bensken, Bauman, Bright, L. Clark.

Row 3—R. Brown, K. Brown, B. Brown, Brenneman, M. Browne, Bell, R. Brown, Boggs, Miss Fisher.

MISS FISHER'S HOME ROOM . . .

We lived up to our name of Fisher's Dog House all right. We were always in the dog house as far as the Dean was concerned, but we kept right up on all the latest gossip.

MISS MOORE'S HOME ROOM . . .

When Christmas time rolled around, we played the Good Samaritan and helped buy a theater ticket for an unfortunate colleague.

MR. BOTHWELL'S HOME ROOM . . .

At times we were a well behaved home room but not on the day that we received those delicious suckers from our very excited home room teacher.

Row 1—Ebert, K. Clark, W. Clark, Donahue, K. Clark, Brame, Eubanks.

Row 2—M. Clark, Crane, Miss Moore, Crook, Clabaugh, Doyle, Dearing, Conrad.

Row 3—Clements, Dye, Dilley, Cekander, Deshayes, Charles, Shaw, B. Clark.

Row 1—Merlo, Massey D., Mace, Nugent, Phillips, McClugen.

Row 2—Moenkhaus, Murray, Pollard, Maddox, Linck, Snyder K., Phillips.

Row 1—Ross, Shick, Gher, Powell, Sandwell, Scheib, Shinker, Rethard, Shafer.

Row 2—Powers, Swinford, Reinhold, Roughton, Retzolk, Rubow, B. Robbins, Robbins, Rosenberger.

Row 3—J. Scott, Roberts, Werts, Redmon, Riney, Renner, Prather, Mr. Hampton, Royer, Stevens.

Row 1—Hatter, Hart, Lantz, Kingston, Koehler, Himes, Hermie, Hauser.

Row 2—Jeter, Hursey, Reid, Kibler, Holmes, Kent, Keister, Kinnear, Huck.

Row 3—Hull, Johnson, Hart, Kenworthy, Kimpel, Lambdin, Latimer, Haworth, Hunt, Miss Berger.

MR. HAMPTON'S HOME ROOM . . .

We broke our tradition of do-nothing and investigated the matter of our business men and their past histories. Most interesting!

MISS BERGER'S HOME ROOM . . .

Our annual picnic was as successful as usual, although the fire wanted to stay longer than the rest of us. However, our gallant girl fire-fighters, after hours of pounding away at it, convinced it that its days were over.

MISS TURNELL'S HOME ROOM . . .

Half the room met after school, for the sole purpose of registering in good order.

Row 1—Wrather, Vaughn, Stephens, Skroder R., Carpenter J., Sullivan, Walker, Stewart.

Row 2—Sieferman R., Smith Y., Van Deventer, Znaniecki, Wilson J., Thompson, Toland, Warren M., Whitson H.

Row 3—Williams, Wilson Z., Titus, Wuellner, Webster, Widing, Smith B., Keyserde, Warren J., Miss Turnell.

Sophomore Home Rooms

MISS MCCLURG'S HOME ROOM . . .

We were a totalitarian home room. Karl Aron was our dictator; Bob Anderson acted as his helper.

Row 1—C. Maddox, Gibens, Bruner, Baker, Adams, B. Birt, Byrant.

Row 2 — Bonnett, Allen, Bohlen, Boyd, Bean, Beach, Anderson, Bonnell.

Row 3—Miss Biedermann, Reinhold, McPheeters, Rindt, Pritchard, Morgan, Roberts, Parry, Ross, Oehmke.

MISS BIEDERMANN'S HOME ROOM . . .

We successfully carried out your yearly program and gained inspiration and knowledge by doing so. We firmly believe that our home room periods were well spent.

MISS BUCK'S HOME ROOM . . .

After last year's fight with the termites, we had only a few disturbances this year, one of which was the explosion of a firecracker during home room.

MR. JAMES' HOME ROOM . . .

Life was pretty dull for us. We could never think of anything exciting to do in home room . . . except study.

Row 1—Cuskaden, Conklin, Chesnut, Stalter, Cobb, Franklin, Dilly, Downs.

Row 2—Entler, Dolan, Gregerson, Farlow, Dixon, Englis, Gregerson, Fay, Finfrock.

Row 2—Hatter, Herndon, Hill, Hindman, Hoelscher, Humes, Hartman, Jared.

Row 3—Miss Kearns, Jeffers, Halberstadt, Gher, Harshbarger, Gordon, Grady, Land, Harmison, Howser.

MISS KEARNS' HOME ROOM . . .

Wayne Howser was our protegé. He swallowed a phonograph needle one day to furnish entertainment for the students.

MR. LYONS' HOME ROOM . . .

We created what might be called a "rat race." There was never a dull moment for us. Chuck Wilheit sat on a tack to give us a variety in our daily program.

MR. BENNETT'S HOME ROOM . . .

Having automobile wrecks, teeth filled, and general confusion were typical of our home room.

Row 1—D. Wilson, E. L. Wilson, Whiting, Whitten, W. Young, Veirs, L. Williams, Werts.

Row 2—E. F. Wilson, Weullner, Vliet, Weinard, Turner, Utterback, Vesey, Weaver.

MISS WOOD'S HOME ROOM . . .

We liked parties best of all, although plans for only two of them developed: but in our remaining high school years we hope to have many more.

MISS KRIEG'S HOME ROOM . . .

Room 401 was a model home room. We developed the suggestions of the Guidance Committee; we studied our lessons, and had some very interesting programs.

Row 3—Miss Kirk, E. Wilson, E. J. Wilson, Wikoff, White, Tindall, E. Wilson, Wilcox, Wrather, Wharmby, Warnken.

MISS KIRK'S HOME ROOM . . .

We were just an average home room—not too good—not too bad. Nothing much happened to us.

MR. JAMES' HOME ROOM . . .

Professor Quiz played an important part in our home room program. When all else failed us, we resorted to his game and had fun playing it.

MR. SKIDMORE'S HOME ROOM . . .

Oftentimes we had two home room periods a day because we were so wild and noisy. We were never content to gossip or read; we had to break the furniture.

Row 1—McKinney, M. Green, Fry, Guard, Fehner, Hadfield, Hackett, Hardin, Mae Green.

Row 2—Bowlin, Akers, Brooks, Allison, Alford, Lovett, Bosley, J. Adams, Bantz, Bean.

Row 3 — Brewer, D. Adams, N. Green, Barcus, Allen, B. Barcus, Agnew.

MISS BULLOCK'S HOME ROOM . . .

We provoked Miss Bullock at times, but we were never as noisy and boisterous in our actions as another freshman home room was.

MISS ROMPEL'S HOME ROOM . . .

Such fun we did have when Miss Rompel was out of the room taking pictures! We teased our monitors and laughed at Gordon Smith's giggle. We really didn't accomplish much, but we did have fun.

MRS. HAMILTON'S HOME ROOM . . .

From Mrs. Hamilton's travel talks, we learned that Japan and Mexico are very interesting places.

Row 1—Todd, Shroyer, Shipman, Vaught, Spahn, Tolson, Vliet, N. A. Smith, Valentine, P. Strong, Holly, J. Strong, Silver.

December 20

Never a dull moment at good old U. H. S. this year? There is always plenty of work to be done in the various school organizations.

Debate . . . drama . . . club meetings . . . library work . . . musicals . . . dances . . . parties . . . initiations . . . one exciting moment after the other keeps our spirits high and our minds busy.

Through the Years

THE YEARBOOK

LOOKING OVER THE DUMMY: Merrill Alexander, Mary Lou Pettys, Alva Huelsen, Vivian Crane.

I try to keep a record of what goes on during the year, but I fail to be as complete as our yearbook, the Rosemary. The annual has won All-American honors for two successive years.

Every staff member did his best to help put out this priceless book. The staff for 1941:

Editorial Staff
Mary Lou Pettys—Editor-in-Chief
Vivian Crane—Assistant Editor

Through the Weeks

THE NEWSPAPER

Our labor centered in the journalism class, where instead of the regular class work, we learned the tricks of the trade by preparing the Echo. Our outside assignments were to collect all the school news, the different activities of the clubs, and to get good, thrilling news about certain individuals. We always tried to be up to date and to give the students what they wanted in terms of a good school paper.

Our staff, under the advisers, Mr. Lyons and Mrs. H. James, was as follows:

Editorial:

Editor—Dorothy Freeman
Assistant Editors—Mary Geissendorfer, Tom Moore
News Editor—Mary Gepner
Sports—Earl Dawson
Girls' Sports—Barbara Van Deventer
Dramatics—Wilma Pratt
Society—Margaret Rubow

THE LIBRARY

Miss Amelia Kearns, Virginia Boyd

"Miss Kearns, where can I find something on tree surgery? . . . Do you have some material on plastics?" Miss Kearns and members of the Bookslingers have to reply to such inquiries each day.

The Bookslingers Club is one of the smallest but most active organizations in the school. At least two members of the club are kept busy every day answering reference questions, checking out books, typing, and obtaining new books.

The officers were: Alva Huelsen, president; Georgia Crane, vice president; Margaret Kingston, secretary-treasurer; and Virginia Boyd, program chairman.

This year two hundred books have been added, bringing the total number of books in the library to 4,760. Two outstanding changes were made in the library. For the first time students did not have access to the back-issues of magazines. Also, boxes were purchased for several periodicals, and the remainder were tied into bundles to be used for reference only.

The vertical file was arranged and classified so that the student had access to pamphlets and clippings on current topics.

LIBRARY CLUB (BOOKSLINGERS): Seated—E. J. Wilson, Boyd, Kingston, Huelsen, Crane, Miller, E. Wilson. Standing—Holley, Hendricks, Statler, Vesey, Hinton, Hermie, M. Smith, Moore.

FAVORITE BOOK DISPLAY: Margaret Kingston, Alva Huelsen, Georgia Crane.

Library Activity and Panel Discussion

Not to argue, but to discuss, has been the idea at our meetings at various times during the year. We found many subjects for discussion, such as "The Curfew," "Should men teachers in public schools be exempt from the conscription bill?" "Should the U. S. go to war against the tripartite alliance or yield to their demands?" "Should high schools have courses in military training as a permanent part of their work?" or "Should the U. S. build more airplanes or more battleships?" and other such topics pertaining to present day problems. Some of these we discussed for our own benefit; others, for an audience. These performances were arranged for us by Ted Frison, program chairman. Other officers were: Kay Ross, president; Bill Severns, vice-president; and Barbara Whiting, secretary-treasurer. The faculty adviser was Mr. Preston James.

PANEL DISCUSSIONS: Seated — Stephens, Reedy, Weinard, Bruner, Farlow, Hopson, Laning, Cobb.

Standing — Whiting, Gebhart, Whitten, Keilholz, Ross, Lang, Gulley, Chesnut.

ENGLISH INSTRUCTORS: Seated—Miss Clara Bullock, Miss Ruth Rompel. Standing—Miss Gertrude Biedermann, Mr. William Lyons.

PHI EPSILON

Phi Epsilon has once again proved that although Latin is a dead language, Latin students are very much alive.

The outstanding social event of the club this year was the Language Club Dance, at which the French and German students were guests. Other social events included a covered dish supper, a picnic in Smith's woods, and the annual Latin banquet carried out in Roman style, togas included.

Once again, Urbana was host to the District Latin Contest. All seven of Urbana's contestants advanced to the Sectional, held in Charleston. Paula Maddox, Wilma Pratt, John Parry, and Joe Ted Miller, four of the contestants, won the right to compete in the State Meet in Chicago.

Officers were: Jane Keilholz, consul; Ralph Gebhart, pro-consul; Betty Jean Iles, art scribe; Marjorie Bean and Kay Seed, aediles; Barbara Whiting, quaestor; and Miss Ethelyn Kirk, faculty adviser.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE INSTRUCTORS: Seated—Miss Dicie Ann Moore, Miss Eleanor Buck. Standing—Mr. Willard Skidmore, Miss Ethelyn Kirk.

Nous Parlons Francais

Pat Strong, Evelyn Wilson

The appealing odors of those plentiful hot dogs piled high with mustard and relish, and the gay shouts from all parts of Hessel Park still linger in the memory of our "Fête de Bois"; the glow of pride at entertaining all the language clubs at the Christmas party, the gaiety in the singing of "Petit Navire"; the exaltations of the spring blossoming forth in the mad scramble of "La Chasse," as well as the lamentations of mothers at their used-to-be-neat homes; the nervousness just before the "Fête de Baccalaureate," which afterward turns to enjoyment when the poem is recited, the twinge of sadness in the senior's farewell that brings Phi Kappa's activities for the year to a close—these are the memories of Phi Kappa, the French Club. The never-lagging interest of our leaders Virginia Gher, president; Arthur Moenkhaus, vice-president; Betty Jo Lykins, secretary; Patty Brown, treasurer; Merve Browne and Wilson Jeter, sergeants-at-arms, and Miss Moore, our sponsor, made a success of all our enterprises.

"We Others" found Room 111 a gay and interesting gathering place at least once a month at our regular meetings. Always we could look forward to some intriguing French puzzles and French games, as well as some added attractions. One day Miss Moore told us some of her experiences in Mexico, which was next best to going there. Dick Pettys and David Roberts put us in a laughing mood another time with their presentation of the play "The White Rabbit Inn."

Man Spricht Deutsch

"Ouch!" and "Hey!" yelped fourteen first year German students as they sat in the electrically wired chair. Their "electrocution" formed the climax to the German Club's formal initiation. The club, sponsored by Mr. Skidmore, is the smallest and most recently organized of the language clubs.

During the first semester quite a bit of time was devoted to studying the German school system and comparing it with the school systems of England, France, and Poland.

The officers were Charles Spaeth, president; Alva Huelsen, vice-president; and Carol Koehler, secretary-treasurer.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

During our four years in Urbana High, we've learned much mathematics but remember very little.

We learned first the value of "x"; learned to juggle algebraic fractions, simplify radicals, and plot equations. Then we learned to prove theorems, construct geometric figures, and work honor problems.

Some few of us ventured into the realms of more advanced mathematics where we worked with fractional exponents and imaginary numbers; dihedral angles, truncated prisms, and spheres; and sines, secants, and tangents.

A few more of us had a practical turn of mind and learned to compute interest, balance books, and make correct entries. The remainder of us—well, we forgot about math as soon as we had the required credits.

SCIENCE INSTRUCTORS: Miss Thusenelda Gross, Miss Lola McClurg, Mr. Glenn Tilbury.

From Osmosis to Pascal

THE SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

The Science Department of Urbana High School is divided into three sections, biology, physiography and physiology, and physics and chemistry.

The biology classes taught by Miss Lola McClurg study all forms of animal and plant life. The classes are varied and made interesting by the frequent field trips to the parks and the university.

In Miss Gross's physiography and physiology classes, the students learn not only about the human body, but they learn more of the world about them.

The physics and chemistry students, instructed by Mr. Tilbury, learn the workings of machines and the structure of everyday things through fascinating experiments.

"Open your mouth, close your eyes" and down the throat of some unlucky initiate slides a slimy oyster. This might not help your appetite for the delicious pot-luck supper which is part of the traditional custom of the annual Science Club initiation.

With a variety of events ranging from a trip to the Chicago Museums to interesting talks and demonstrations, the Science Club members have a very entertaining year's schedule. At one program Prof. Knipp gave an extremely interesting "Liquid Air" demonstration. At another, Prof. Audrieth talked on "Plastics." With such topics of vital interest to us all, Prof. Hopkins told about "Materials for National Defense."

This year's officers were Pauline Dietz, president; Julian Lauchner, vice-president; Phyllis Brown, secretary; Julius Fiebig, treasurer; Shirley Bauer, program chairman, and Joan Radebaugh, social chairman. Miss Lola McClurg and Mr. Glenn Tilbury were the faculty advisers.

SCIENCE CLUB INITIATION: Pauline Dietz, Phyllis Brown, Alice Koehler, Flora Beth Case, Victim, Merton Alexander.

ART DEPARTMENT

La Delle Portz, Miss Louise Zilly, Shirley Kellogg

We aren't all potential artists after our one-year art course, but we do have an improved appreciation of artistic things. In learning the basic principles of design, color, and of lettering, we have acquired an ability to better judge, and in learning basic methods of working, to better understand the world of art. Our program was not limited to the class room, as field trips to the Architecture Building and to the City Art exhibit at the Champaign City Building, were valuable supplements. Outside speakers, and experts in their individual fields, helped widen our knowledge of them. We feel that the year has been well spent.

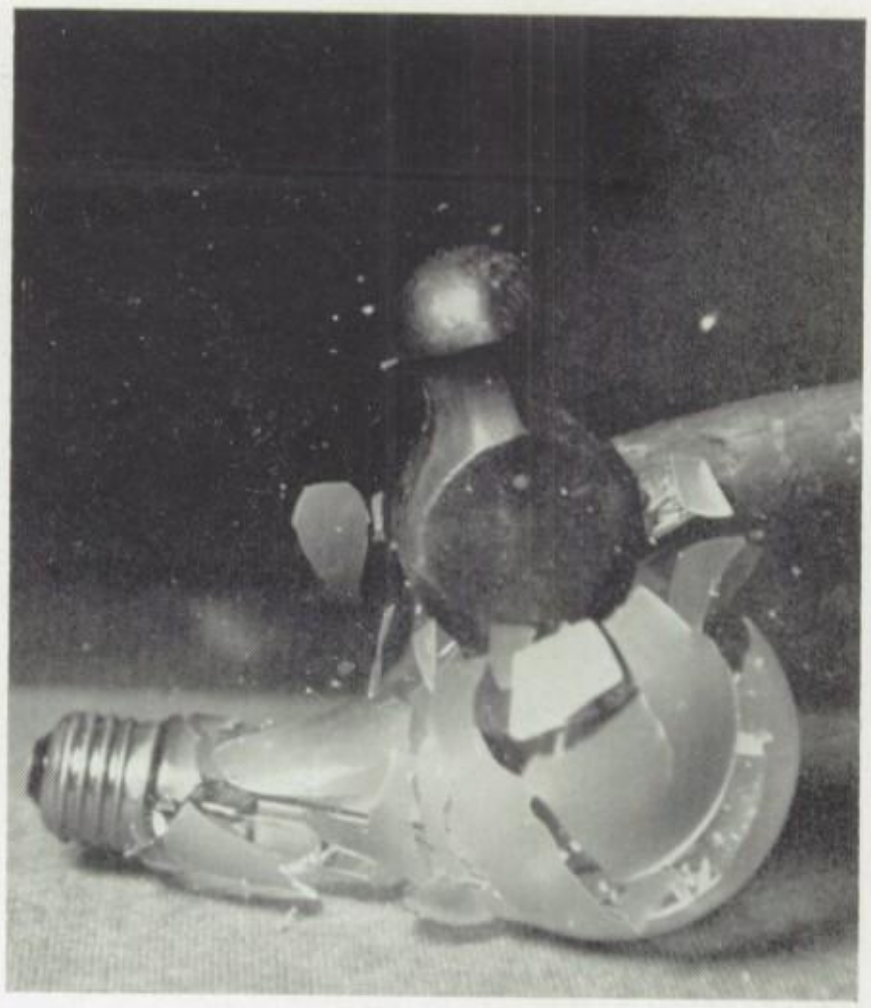
CAMERA CLUB



EXPERIMENT

Our club met for the first time shortly before Christmas and thereafter, once a month. The Christmas season gave us an excuse for a contest, in which the object was to produce the best photograph suitable for use as a Christmas card. A meeting about superspeed photography was the feature of the year. Our main aim has been to maintain an interest in photography. Our officers, David Yazell, president; Gordon Avison, vice president; Merrill Alexander, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Skidmore, our chief photographer, have done much towards upholding these ideals.

Forever Changing

THE HISTORY DEPARTMENT

"Latin is a dead, dead language—" and the Romans are a dead people, but Miss Lawson's ancient history students spent more than a month studying the Roman Empire, Roman culture, and Roman civilization.

Miss Wood taught both world and modern history. Her modern history classes studied conditions in Europe from the French Revolution up to the present time.

Civics classes under Mr. Hornor's guidance, studied the workings of our governments. They conducted mock trials and had quite a few heated political discussions. The economics classes were also hotbeds for political discussions.

Mr. James's American History classes studied the development of our country, interspersing regular text assignments with outside work.

VOTING IN CIVICS CLASS: D. Schroepple, R. Gebhart, M. Ivens, M. Roughton, Mr. Hornor, M. Clark.

Molding Careers

THE COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

"Take a letter, Miss——." This is a well-known phrase to every member of the Secretarial Training Class, taught by Miss Fisher. The class, composed of nineteen senior girls, spends two periods daily training to become efficient secretaries and stenographers. The purpose of the course is to develop skill in taking dictation and transcribing it quickly and intelligently, as well as to train for all forms of office work. A final requirement is to take dictation at the rate of one hundred words per minute.

Bookkeeping is another important part of the commercial department of Urbana High School. It is taught by Mr. John L. Hampton, better known to his students as "Judge" Hampton. In this course the students learn the basic principles of the bookkeeping system. At the end of the year's term they are able to keep their own personal records or to adopt bookkeeping as an occupation and means of earning their livelihood.

BOOKKEEPING INSTRUCTOR: Mr. John Hampton; pupil, Jacquie Wilson.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB: Seated—Greene, Shelton, Saltsgaver, Colbert, Cochran, Wallace.

Standing—Stone, Huck, Hursey, Alford, Stevens, Ransom, Brown, Vaught, Bean, Boughers.

"Are you up on the latest rules of etiquette?" "Do you know just how to act on a date?" The home-making classes meeting every school day for two periods discuss such questions. The courses in home economics this year are organized on a composite plan, and not only take up foods and clothing, but also such problems and topics of family and social life as dates, personality, manners, personal appearance, helping with household duties, how to behave in family and social life, first aid, care of children, and marriage.

With the home economics rooms almost completely remodeled, the classes have new equipment and a different arrangement in their rooms.

Under the supervision of Miss Helen Berger, the interesting school year program for Home-makers is carried out.

HOME ECONOMICS INSTRUCTOR: Miss Helen Berger: student, Marjorie Basden.

With the motto "Let's get a taste of home economics," the newly organized Home Economics Club is off to a great start. The club yearbook, appropriately named "The Sampler," gives an outline of the club's activities for the school year. With a wide variety of programs, the Home-makers have a very interesting schedule. Highlights of this schedule include such events as: a spaghetti supper, a Christmas party, talks on "Etiquette" and "Personality," visits to the Home Economics laboratories at the University of Illinois, rally day at Atwood, and a farewell party to the seniors. Many of us enjoyed the benefits from one of the club's main projects, the Christmas wrapping station, which the home-economics girls operated during the Christmas season.

The "Home-makers" elected their officers who were: Jackie Colbert, president; Julia Cochran, vice-president; Shirley Saltsgaver, secretary; Ethel Mae Shelton, treasurer, and Mary Miller, program chairman.

With Miss Helen Berger as the faculty adviser, the club is a member of the Illinois Home Economics Association.

MANUAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

The Manual Arts Department is under the capable leadership of Mr. Adam Q. Bennett. The purpose of the manual arts course is to furnish all boys with a general knowledge of mechanical drawing, electricity, metal work, and wood work.

Each of these sections of work takes approximately ten weeks. The boys pay a small laboratory fee for the course and buy the materials for their projects.

Their projects are those that can be used in the family home. Some of the boys made lamps which were electrically equipped; some made end tables and book ends, while a few made cedar chests.

Girls' Clubs

The Girl Scouts were busy this year in various activities, which were under the direction of the troop leader, Mrs. Carl Knox. Some of the activities included Red Cross work, parties, and meetings with Champaign. At Christmas we gave a party for the less fortunate pre-school children.

Our officers for the first semester were Betty Jo Lykins, president; Patty Powell, vice-president; Dorothy Emsing, secretary; Virginia Gher, treasurer. The second semester, Shirley Bauer was vice-president and Jane Keilholz was the treasurer.

The Girl Reserves have had several very interesting meetings this year. During one meeting, the girls visited the Red Cross headquarters where they donned white aprons and made bandages.

In March the girls had a taffy pull at the Whitson's. Once again, Miss Mildred Lawson assumed the adviserships of the club.

The officers for the year were Martha Corkery, president; Shirley Baur, vice-president; Eleanor Sandwell, secretary-treasurer; Ruth Whitson, program chairman.

To Help the School

STUDENT COUNCIL

"Will you please tell me where room 302 is? . . . How can I find the gym?" . . . queried last fall's freshmen, and we took it on ourselves to inform them of the facts they needed to know.

By the time we got the freshmen settled, it was time for the annual class elections. This year we had more than the usual amount of excitement by starting campaign movements in class assemblies after which hot campaigning took place.

We did our bit in the all-school functions . . . the Christmas Dance . . . the Sadie Hawkins' Dance, an event which, after much confusion concerning the time and place, was held in the Thornburn Gym.

We unearthed new yells for our team, the best being presented to the school in a pep assembly preceding the Champaign game. They proved popular; the gym frequently resounded with them.

Our annual Courtesy Week was climaxed by a fascinating assembly conducted by Mr. W. E. Skidmore. Here, those who profited by home room discussions of courtesy, and those who made high honors on the courtesy exam, received recognition; and the courtesy king and queen were announced.

Carefully avoiding April Fool's Day, we chose April 2 for Student Government Day. Pupils took over the duties of the faculty and office members.

Primarily, our job was to get things done the way the students wanted and to solve their collective problems. This wasn't an easy job and we needed to work hard to find the best way to accomplish these things. Meetings with other schools' student councils helped us a great deal. We played host to one of these meetings in October. The state meeting was held at Springfield. We had our delegates on hand to pick up new ideas, and to help other schools with their problems. Our officers were Jacquie Scott, president; Chuck Spaeth, vice-president; Marilyn Kerr, secretary; Vivian Crane, treasurer, Shirley Bauer, parliamentarian.

S. K. TEA: Phyllis Jones, Pat Ryan, Miriam Potter, Joan McClellan, Joan Radebaugh, Ruth Fehner.

Dances occupied a large part of our calendar this year. There were two teas, one for the freshmen and the other for upperclassmen. Several interesting girls' assemblies were sponsored, at which time we were honored with inspiring talks by the well known speakers Irene Bierson, Ruth Frazier and Mrs. H. H. Anderson, one where Ruth Wilken Frazier spoke on "Personality Recipes," one where Betsy Ross twirled her baton, another where Mrs. H. H. Anderson told about "Making and Keeping Friends," and one at which Irene Pierson told the senior girls about "Social Life at the University of Illinois." To these activities may be added the annual Big and Little Sister Party, the S. K. hops after the football games, and the annual Senior Breakfast in May.

Officettes and Hi-Y

Hi-Y is the high school branch of the Y.M.C.A. The purpose being "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The platform contains four planks: Clean Living, Clean Speech, Clean Athletics, and Clean Scholarship.

Officers for the first semester were Leroy Britton, president; Jack Shafer, vice-president; Bill Severns, secretary; and Everett Hall, treasurer. The officers for the second semester were Tom Purl, president; Gordon Avison, vice-president; Art Moenkhaus, secretary; and Tom Kinnear, treasurer.

"Will you please answer the phone—collect the attendance slips—make attendance lists?" These were a few of the duties of the newly organized "Officettes." The group was composed of girls who worked in the office different hours of the day.

The "Officettes," who met twice a month, heard talks on office and secretarial work. At the first meeting the girls elected their officers who were Miriam Potter, president; Shirley Saltsgaver, vice-president; Jackie Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

THE DRAMATICS DEPARTMENT

MAKING UP: Marilyn Kerr, Bill Severns, Mrs. Hamilton.

Conflicting in activities with Delta Sigma, the National Thespians sponsored several projects of their own. A three-act play, "America First," was presented at school and at Chanute Field. Two one-act plays were also given during the year. The troupe made two trips to Chicago to see two outstanding stage plays, "Life With Father," starring Lillian Gish, and "Twelfth Night," starring Helen Hayes.

Officers for the year were as follows: Marjory Basden, president for the first semester; Shirley Bauer, president for the second semester; Jack Shafer, vice-president; and Betty Jo Lykins, secretary-treasurer.

Delta Sigma, the speech and dramatics honorary, was very active with its traditional social functions—the Christmas dinner and initiation, the reception for parents, and the farewell dinner for the seniors. The Variety Show, the Freshman-Sophomore Dramatics Night, and the Midwinter Play have become annual events of Delta Sigma.

The officers were Bonnie Chesnut, president; Jack Shafer, vice-president; Shirley Bauer, secretary; Marie Ivens, assistant secretary; Al Gougler, treasurer; Joan Radebaugh, program chairman; Betty Dunn, social chairman; and Ted Frison and Andy Fay, sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. Hamilton was adviser.

THESPIANS: Seated—Carpenter Gougler, Lykins, Ivens, Shafer, Mrs. Hamilton, Bauer.

Standing—Brown, Chesnut, Pratt, Clark, Huelsen, Lawrence, Adams, Aron, Whitten, Wright, Anderson, Severns, Ross, Frison, Gher, Emsing.

SPEECH "U" WINNERS: Row 1—Huelsen, Bauer, Gher, Chesnut, Radebaugh, Ivens, Hewkins, Emsing.

Row 2—Hoelscher, Aron, Ross, Lawrence, Wright, Shafer, Faust, Gougler.

Each year, the speech department awards speech U's to all members of Delta Sigma who have obtained a total of 40 points or more. By participating in plays, speech contests, broadcasting work, and debate, the speech members may gather points for their U's. Those who received U's but are not in the picture are Betty Dunn, Betty Jo Lykins, and Bob Brown. The speech honor roll is composed of the most outstanding seniors in the speech department. Jack Shafer, Dale Wright, Betty Dunn, Joan Radebaugh, Betty Jo Lykins, Dorothy Emsing, Shirley Bauer, Bonnie Chesnut, Alva Huelsen, and Marie Ivens were the ones who achieved this honor.

Captain Applejack

On November 15, the senior class presented "Captain Applejack," directed by Miss Elizabeth Turnell and Virginia Gher.

A wealthy English bachelor, Ambrose Applejohn (Bill Severns), becomes tired with his monotonous daily existence and decides to sell the family home, trading it for the lure of the open road. He hires Johnny Jason (Maurice Faust) to sell the estate for him. Johnny, hoping to attract prospective buyers, hides a fake treasure map and drops the hint that there is gold hidden on the place. Ambrose finds the map and a story about a notorious pirate, Captain Applejack, who is an ancestor of his. His imagination is touched and he falls asleep dreaming that he is Captain Applejack. On waking, he discovers the map is a fake; however, he and Johnny find a real map, and, consequently discover a treasure chest.

Leave It To Psmith

The hilarious comedy, "Leave It to Psmith," by P. G. Wodehouse and Ian Hay, was given January 17, under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Hamilton and student director, Betty Jo Lykins.

Freddy Bosham (Dale Wright) hires Psmith (Al Gougler) to steal the jewels of Lady Middlewick (Dorothy Emsing) so that he can marry Phyllis Jackson (Betty Dunn). Psmith consents to help because he wishes to be near Eve Holliday (Bonnie Chesnut). Two other crooks (Paul Lawrence and Doris Smith) try to take the jewels, but through clever manipulations Psmith outwits them and gets the jewels, which bring Freddy a reward. Rupert Baxter (Tom Moore) is hired by Lord Middlewick (Jack Shafer) to spy on Psmith.

America First

Robert Ray's "America First" was presented Tuesday, April 22, and again Thursday, April 24. The casts were composed of members from the dramatics class and members from the Thespian group. The dramatics class production was given Tuesday, and the Thespian's Thursday. Miss Elizabeth Young with the assistance of Benny Clark, and Miss Martha Noel with the assistance of Shirley Bauer, directed the plays for Tuesday and Thursday, respectively.

A high school boy, Lee Holmes (Art Cuppernell—Al Gougler) is misled by two foreign agents, Ola Kring (Joan Parker—Betty Jo Lykins) and Franz Kring (John Eagon—Bill Severns). Lee and his friend, Jimmy Banks (Al Cardiff—Dale Wright) become innocently involved in their revolutionary plot. Finally Lee, the scales having fallen from his eyes, redeems himself by trapping the foreign agents.

Young April

The delightful comedy "Young April" was presented by the junior class March 28, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Turnell with two assistants (Barbara Van Deventer and Helena Znaniecki).

Terry MacIntyre (Peg Himes) and George MacIntyre (Morris Doyle) kept their parents (Helen Whitson and Beach Leighton) quite busy trying to keep tab on their children's love affairs. There was a great deal of rivalry between Terry's boy friends, but finally Brian (Wilson Jeter) won her after a little interference from Vivian, the vamp (Phyllis Brown). George finally made up with Diane (Jean Fae Carpenter) and everyone was happy at last.

The comedy part of the cast was cleverly played by Shirley Holmes as proud Lula, by Paula Maddox as Elsie, the book worm, and by Flora Case as gushy Mrs. Miller.

STAGE CRAFT AND SPEECH

After one semester of dramatics, and one of stagecraft under Mrs. Hamilton, we have gained a good deal more ability necessary for producing a play than we had last fall. We now know all that has to be done and how to do it. Acting, we find, is one little part of a production. We have planned and constructed all the scenery needed for the plays given at U. H. S., arranged the lighting, made or remodeled the furniture, and studied the costuming from the standpoint of type and color. We have coached plays, acted in others, and have, at one time or another, served as house manager. We have presented Christmas plays for our assemblies and for the community, and have produced the annual mid-winter play, which gave us an excellent chance to utilize the things we had learned.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

MR. AUSTIN E. GARRELS

Combining their efforts to lead the band this year were Director Austin E. Garrels and Drum Majorette Betsy Ross. Mr. Garrels not only directed the band, but he also capably handled the orchestra, choir, ensembles, soloists, and music appreciation classes. For making a success of each and every one of these enterprises, we offer a toast to our director.

With an eye to the future, Betsy Ross spent hours teaching the art of baton twirling to other girls in the school who were interested. Next year Betsy will not lead the band alone, but will be aided by her twirlers.

"Come to the band benefit!"—this was the slogan of all band members during the past year. Anyone buying a ticket for a band benefit if they weren't told, wouldn't know whether to expect a "Basketball Brawl," a movie, a dance, a concert or a carnival, but they were satisfied because they knew it was all for the sake of the long awaited new uniforms. While working for the new uniforms, we did our best in the old. Football games, basketball games, pep assemblies, an exchange concert, and a spring concert all kept us on our toes. This year, at the Champaign-Urbana football game, the bands called a truce and marched together in a brand new airplane formation. At the basketball games we played together, although we each remained on our respective sides of the gym.

SOLOISTS: Row 1 — Titus, Burgett, Stevens, C. Koehler, Tehon, Fairbanks.

Standing—Clark, Titus, Root, Ledderboge.

FLUTE TRIO: Margaret Robbins, Carol Koehler, Atha Tehon. WOODWIND TRIO: Atha Tehon, Bob Root, Ida M. Farlow.

TROMBONE QUARTET: Fred Bechly, Kay Ross, Wilson Jeter, Marvin Murrell.

HORN QUARTET: Russell Brown, Bob Weller, Gerald Comstock, Ralph Gher.

CLARINET QUARTET: Bill Severns, Ted Frison, Mervin Browne, Ross Titus.

The Orchestra

We met each day, second hour, in the auditorium under the direction of Mr. Garrels, first with the music for the various plays of the year on our minds, and later, with our annual concert, which we presented April 6. After the concert, we looked forward to the Big Twelve Festival at Champaign on May 10, where we joined with the other orchestras of the Big Twelve schools in a grand finale of the year.

Row 5— Middleton, Skroder, Allen, Pennell, Hewkins, Cuppernell, Pittman, Francisco, McIntosh, Licht, Kelley, Wilson, Moore, Wilson, Young.

The Chorus

During seventh hour, any day of the year, you may have heard our voices filtering through the building. In the fall, the strains heard most often were those of "Stardust," which we sang for the football fans at one of the games. One of our main projects was the spring concert of May 18; another was our participation in the Big Twelve Music Festival. Our practices may have been annoying, or they may have been pleasant, but in either case, we were working for a definite purpose.

"On Urbana, on Urbana," . . . familiar strains of our loyalty songs got more than a work-out this year.

Winners of the Big Twelve Championship in football . . . our great achievement of placing second in the State Basketball Tournament . . . individual winners in the State Wrestling Meet . . . a swimming team for the first time in many years . . . our outstanding track team . . . all these fields of sports made our Athletic Calendar full of happy and unforgettable events.

MR. LEWIS STEPHENS

Leaders of Champions

Our Coach, Lew Stephens, a friend to all, . . . modest and unassuming . . . never sure of winning . . . but always hoping and succeeding, spent one of the most brilliant of his sixteen years at UHS in 1941.

The Big Twelve football championship and the second place in the State Basketball Tournament are only brief examples of the high esteem won by his athletes.

Our coach is well known as being the mentor and athletic director of one of the smallest and most successful schools in the Big Twelve.

We appreciate "Steve's" work, his boyish manner, his friendly grin! We appreciate every thing he's done for us—both for our teams and for the boys in his classes, all of whom he has taught to be good sports and square-shooters.

MR. DAVID BUSEY

Dividing his time among the golf, wrestling, and freshman-sophomore football teams, Coach Dave Busey has had a busy year. Both the wrestlers and golfers found their way to the state tournament. Mr. Busey is well liked by all the boys, most of whom he had in Thornburn.

Taking over the job of assistant coach, Mr. Henry Bothwell has proved himself to be a grand fellow and an able coach. With his sincerity he has won the respect of his students, the admiration of the team, and the praise of his superiors.

Wearers of the U

Wearers of the "U" are the proud boys of our "U" club. Membership is given to those boys who win a major letter in one of the major sports of the school.

Each year the club gives its annual "U" club formal which is the highlight of the year's activities. This year Bob Barnes once again furnished the music for the merrimakers.

Other activities included the annual trip to Turkey Run and the sponsoring of the Urbana Relays and relay queen who was Peggy Himes.

Officers for the year were Fred Werts, president; Jack Sanders, vice-president; and Dick Phillips, secretary-treasurer.

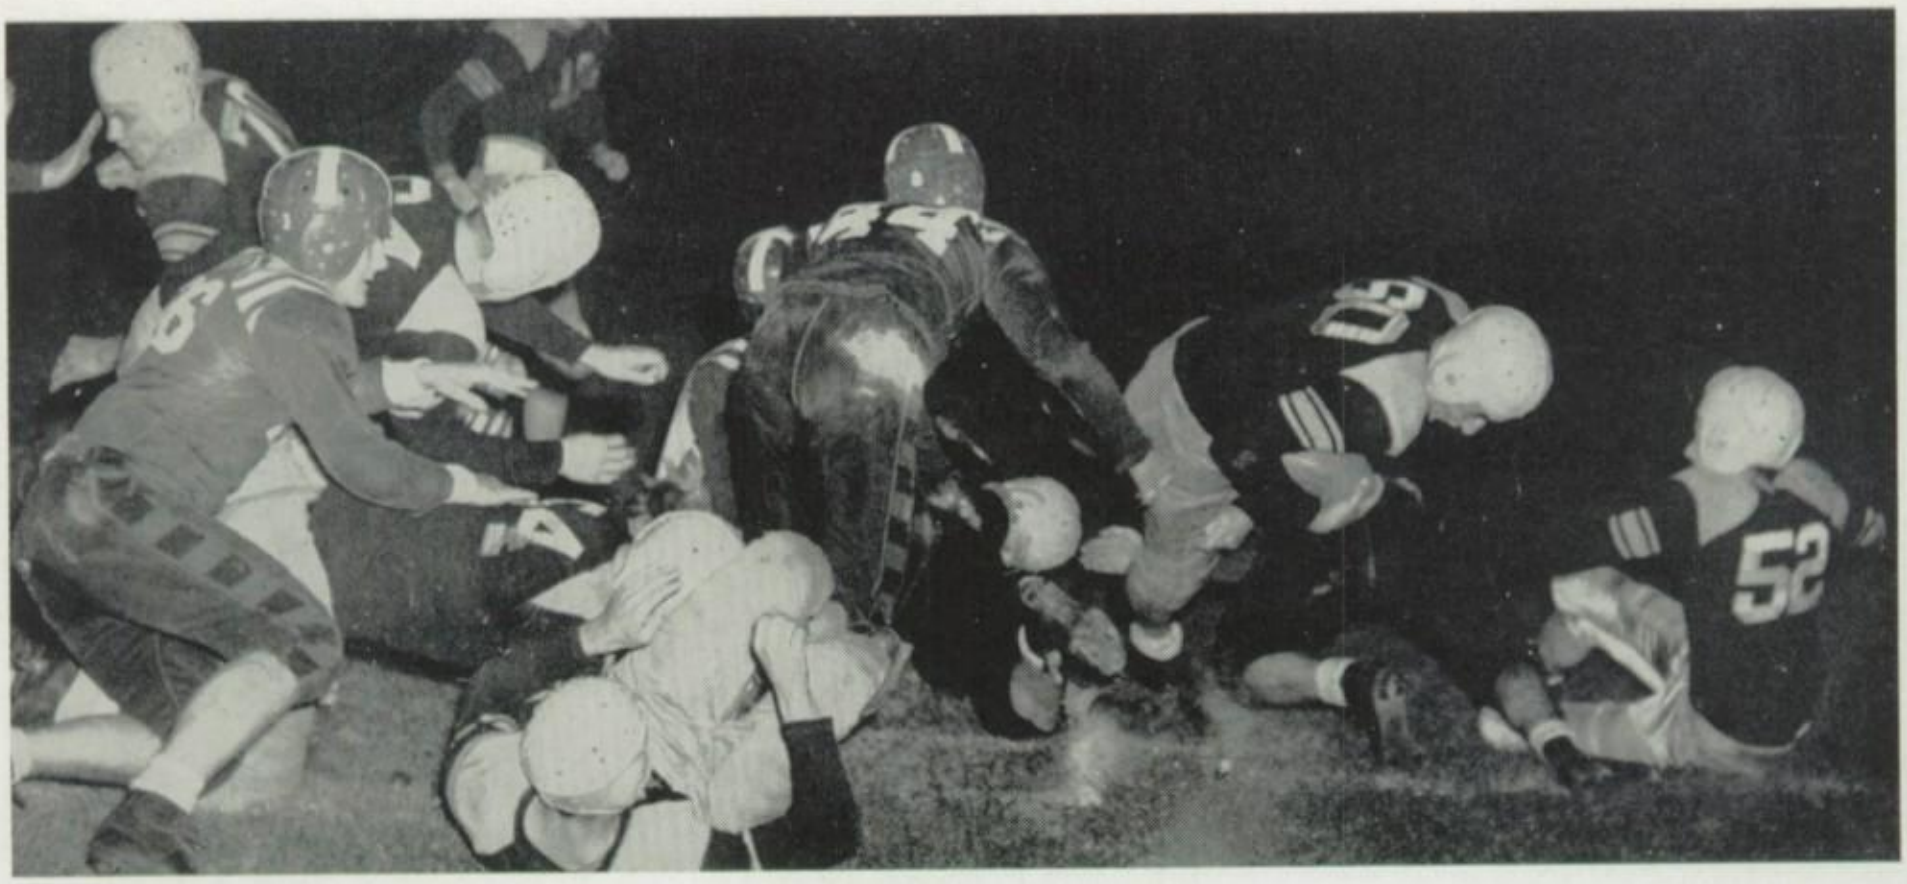
BIG TWELVE COURT OF HONOR



JOE SCORES—YORK GAME

Our powerful Tiger football eleven, co-champs of the Big Twelve, enjoyed one of its biggest seasons, in 1940. It met and crushed nine opponents, straight, and decisively defeated two of the South's toughest teams, Duquoin and Benton. The Tiger opposition was tough, since six teams, York, Paris, Danville, Benton, Duquoin, and Decatur were undefeated before they met Urbana. Ably coached by Lew Stephens, the team bowled over its opponents in fine fashion; the greatest thrill for all being the victory over our arch rival, Champaign.

The season opened with the North's powerful York invading McKinley field, and in as successful a grid premier as Urbana has shown, York was whipped, 13-0. The Orange and Black scored in each of the final quarters, with the aid of Harry Anderson's swivel-hipped running, and a 78-yard jaunt by Russ Wessels.

PHILLIPS GOES AROUND END—DECATUR GAME

Urbana next knotted with Paris and subdued them in a convincing fashion, 12-0. The Tigers thoroughly outplayed the Eastern Illinois champs as Harry Anderson continually broke loose for long runs. Although at first missing several chances for touchdowns, the Tigers started moving in the second quarter, as Squeal Nelson made a circus catch of a pass for a touchdown; and Fred Werts recovered a fumble that led to the last six points.

The Tigers' first Big Twelve victory was won over Danville, with a winning touchdown in the second period, in a 7-0 thrill-packed game. Jumpin' Joe D'Urso stood out for the Tigers with his bangup job of linebacking, overshadowing the play of Tom Smerdel, Danville's All-State guard. Giant Fred Green performed in excellent manner holding Danville end-runs well in check. Urbana was now to be feared in Big Twelve circles.

Our home team next prevailed over Mattoon in an easy manner, 20-0.

Stars in the Mattoon game were, likable Bill Grant, who ran 51 yards, after snagging one of Phillips' many strikes; Fred Werts, who blocked a punt, which led to a touchdown; and Ralph Kenworthy, who, subbing for ailing John Cobb, stood up well on both defense and offense.

Benton appeared next on McKinley field and went home feeling that they had seen too much of the Orange and Black, especially of Dick Phillips, who passed and ran the Tigers to a 26-7 win. After a first quarter score of 7-6, against them, Urbana got their machine rolling and scored three straight touchdowns. Phillips completed five of eight passes, and his long jaunt for a touchdown, behind two beautiful downfield blocks by Jack Sanders, won the game.

The Urbana powerhouse ended Decatur's winning streak as they crushed the Reds, 19-6, for their sixth consecutive triumph. Anderson's runs of 23, 50, and 82 yards, were supported by the outstanding blocking of John Cobb, Jack Sanders, and Joe D'Urso.

Bob Dansby, Decatur's colored flash, recovering from an injury, had no chance to display his skill. Charlie Pollard's interception of a pass, and Dick Phillips' passes, led to the first touchdown. Anderson outran the Decatur team for two touchdowns.

Next came the much looked forward to inter-city clash with Champaign. The Tigers battled all the way to eke out a 7-6 victory in a close game with a story-book finish. Champaign, the underdogs, led 6-0, with four minutes to go, much to the surprise of 7,800 fans. Urbana's Championship hopes hinged on this game, and with four minutes left to play it looked all Champaign. The Tigers came to life with a rush, as Phillips fired a pass from his own 29-yard line to Leal Nelson, and then successive tosses to Fred Green and Russ Wessels. Phillips barely made a first down on Champaign's 9-yard line; then Harry Anderson romped across the goal-line. With the point after touchdown, Urbana dominated the rest of the game and came out on the long end of a 7-6 score. Green and Phillips were leaders of this drive, but the all-round play of lineman Sanders, and the smart quarterbacking combination, divided equally between Chuck Pollard and Bob Gibson, was used to best advantage by Coach Stephens in the last few minutes.

The Tigers concluded their amazingly successful season as they scratched Peoria Manual out of the picture, 18-0, on the homefield. The Tigers scored three straight touchdowns while throttling the Manual pass-attack. The duel between Phillips and famed Tom Derby ended in a one-sided victory for Phillips while Green also stood out over Bob Lawless in receiving. The first touchdown was a completed pass to Fred Green, who ran the remaining 30 yards for the score. The running of Russ Wessels and Harry Anderson led to the other two scores.

Jack Sanders, in spite of a knee injury, and Pooch Rusk, senior tackle, turned in a grand ball game. Thus ended one of Urbana's best seasons, with nine consecutive wins, in which Urbana played the stiffest schedule in its history, before a record home crowd of 37,000 persons.

Any championship team has certain outstanding players, as well as valuable linemen, who are often little noticed by the average football fan. When the time comes for selecting the all-stars, the valuable players find their way to the front. Of these, Jack Sanders and Fred Werts should be mentioned. Jack, though disabled by a knee ailment, played steady ball throughout the season, while Fred, as captain, contributed fine play and inspiring leadership. The most important player was lanky, indispensable Fred Green, whose play so dominated the season that he was named on the first All-State team. As an end, he made seemingly impossible tackles with his unusually long arms. These three most important cogs in the Urbana line made it function flawlessly, although Clyde Rusk, John Cobb, and Squeal Nelson deserve mention for their individual play.

It has been said that if a poor team had Urbana's backfield it would improve 100 per cent. In 1940 there were five real stars in the Tiger backfield.

Seniors, Dick Phillips and Harry Anderson dominated the offensive game for the Tigers, while Joe D'Urso, line plunger and linebacker, was especially effective in his defensive half of the game. Russ Wessels, a member of the backfield, was a good runner, a capable blocker, and being very spirited, probably gave the team the precision it boasted. Bob Gibson and Charlie Pollard traded off at the signal-calling berth, and both performed creditably. Urbana was far from being the favorite at the start of the season, but Lew, its fine coach and leader, rounded out a team showing possibilities into real champions.

The frosh-sophs following in the footsteps of the varsity enjoyed an undefeated season as they triumphed over eight straight foes and made Dave Busey's first year as coach a big success. Paced by Bill Stone who led the team scoring with 72 points and Bill Klingelhoffer, fiery diminutive quarterback, the Tiger Cubs were scored upon only three times by the opposition.

The first three games were played away from home and each time the Tigers "brought home the bacon" with successive wins over Monticello, Danville, and Cerro Gordo. The Cubs returned home and blocked both Charleston and Monticello. On the following Saturday morning they faced their toughest assignment in Danville but managed to eke out a 19-12 win. The team finished its season in fine form with decisive victories over Bement and Paxton. The freshmen showing up well on the team were Orville Hewkins, Gene Wilson, and Frankie D'Urso. In compiling their unmarred record the Bengal Cubs rolled up large scores, never falling below the two-touchdown mark.

Our Ever Fighting Tigers

Three weeks after Urbana had lost the regional tournament to Homer, the Tigers found themselves at the top of the high school basketball world, battling on the threshold of a state title. The best of them all—the pick of the 567 teams that entered the tournaments—so were Urbana and Morton, as they waged a heated battle for the coveted state title.

To begin the season, Urbana was slow in hitting their stride as they lost two of their five warming up games to Tolono and Homer, although in the third game of the season against Paris they looked fairly impressive.

Urbana successfully opened its Big Twelve basketball season by trouncing Danville, 49-31, and nipping Decatur, 38-36. The play of Green and Franklin spelled victory in these games for the winners. Then Urbana mowed down Jacksonville, Moline, Melvin, Peoria Manual, and Clinton in successive triumphs. Next came the battle with Champaign, with Urbana coming out on the short end of a 30-28 score in an overtime period. The Tigers recovered from this to sweep a two-game series with Decatur, but received a thrashing from Centralia, 67-27. The Orange and Black lost the next four games, Tuscola, Champaign, Mattoon, and Flora, but closed their regular season successfully by defeating Danville, Tuscola and Feitshans. The Feitshans game showed that the quintet of Green, Nelson, Franklin, Rusk, and Gibson was clicking, and the spirit of the boys had improved.

Then came the regional tournament, and the Tigers were ready for it. They knocked off St. Joe and Ogden, but met a stone-wall in the championship game against Homer. Both teams advanced to the sectional, and Urbana seemed to have solved its mistakes in the Homer game by taking Hoopeston into camp, 47-34.

For excitement, Urbana fans had nothing to equal Urbana's victory in the next game, as Walt Franklin snatched victory away from Indianola by a basket, in the final seconds of play. This game seemed to be the turning point in the team's mental attitude. They gained confidence and the will to win. In their battle with Champaign, the boys had everything and showed it as they turned on the power in the second half to upset Champaign, 42-38. This can be attributed chiefly to excellent teamwork, although Clyde Rusk's baskets seemed to help turn the tide. At Springfield, Urbana was one of the 16 teams left. Here, Urbana took Collinsville in the opening game, 44-36.

The cry "On to the finals" became apropos as the Tigers handed Pittsfield a 50-30 defeat, with Fred Green eclipsing his achievements of the last game by scoring 26 points.

The freshman team of 1941 should be a marked team in the Big Twelve circles when the year of 1944 rolls around, for in their 12-won 3-lost record they showed likely possibilities. Coach "Hank" Bothwell in his first year as coach, found a combination that seemingly could not be beaten.

Two of the games the underclassmen lost were to St. Joe, but in the last game of the season, the Urbana cubs raised to their greatest height as they gained revenge on St. Joe and whipped them decisively.

Three boys seemed to stand out above the others on the squad. George Peacock, Bill Stevens, Lew Stephens, Jr., retained their first team positions throughout the year and played remarkably well against boys older than they.

The Urbana matmen with their first full-time coach, Dave Busey, completed the most successful season in their history as they pinned down a sixth place in the state tournament. Lonnie Judy became the first state champion that Urbana has ever produced as he won the title at 105 pounds. The wrestlers placed second in the Big Twelve and second in the sectional, as five boys, Lonnie Judy, George Vorhees, Julius Fiebig, John Cobb, and Fred Werts advanced to the state. Of these, Vorhees and Fiebig won third places at their respective weights.

The Tigers' season record is just as impressive. They scored decisive victories in their first four matches against Catlin, Danville, Lewistown, and a return match with Catlin. Although they lost two matches with the state champions, Champaign, they came back to tie Lawrenceville, nineteen all, in the most exciting match of the year.

Wrestlers

John Cobb and Fred Werts had to pin their men in the last two weights to keep from losing. The Tigers finished their season's competition with a record of six wins against three losses, besides the one tie. Other boys should be mentioned because of their fine showings. The stand-outs were Bill Olliverson, who placed second in the Big Twelve, and third in the sectional, at 125 pounds; Pete Sadler who won second in the Big Twelve at 145; Varnell Judy, second at 115, and Bob Weller, 95 pounds, who placed second in the Big Twelve and third in the Sectional. Julius Fiebig first in the Big Twelve, first in the sectional, and third in the state was elected captain. Dick Pittman, Dick Dye, Ralph Gebhart, Harold Whitlach, and Roy Myers are other boys who earned points in the season matches.

Our Speed Demons

The trackmen of 1941 upheld the prestige the Tigers showed in the other sports, since they placed high in both the district and the state track meets as well as in the Big Twelve meet. Lew Stephens rounded a bunch of hard-working boys into a championship team in much the same way that he did in the other sports. These boys, who can be compared to Athenian runners, always seemed to break some kind of record in every meet.

The team started rather slowly, but seemed to gain momentum as the season progressed. They started the season by placing sixth in the Paris relays, barely winning a dual meet with Danville, placing seventh in the Newman relays, and losing to Paris and Danville in a triangular meet. Bill Olliverson's pole vaulting and the sprint and distance medley teams were highlights of early season competition.

The tenth annual Urbana Relays, with the grandeur of the Court of Honor, proved to be the high point on our own track in more ways than one. An inspired Urbana team showed off to good advantage as they piled up fifty and one-half points to finish second behind Decatur. Franklin, Lauchner, and Brenneman were the leading point-getters for Urbana.

Swimming and Golf

After a bit of high pressuring led by the captain, Bill Latimer, a group of boys interested in composing a swimming team finally succeeded. Coached by Bill Cuthberson, members of the team practiced daily during the season, and laid a good foundation for a successful team next year, since most of the team is composed of underclassmen, and since a beginning swimming team takes time to build itself to success.

Golf took another stride forward as the linksmen, under Coach Busey, finished a very successful season. The team lost but one dual meet and that was with Champaign whom they beat in return match.

Eighteen golfers went out for the sport, eight qualifying for the first squad. The Tigers won their district meet, thus qualifying for the state. Urbana placed eighth in the state.

GOLF TEAM: Kneeling — Leighton, Grant, Kenworthy.

Standing — Licht, Kimpel, Wright, Hall.

Row 1 — Andy Fay, Ralph Gher (Captain), Zack Robertson, Beach Leighton.
Row 2—R. Brown, Bill Severns, Ted Frison.

Intramural Teams

From January 10th until March 7th, the competition among the intramural basketball players ran high, and at the end of that time, after each team had played every other team in their league, and the winners of each had played each other, the champions were declared. Recipients of the gold medals went to Bob Green's team. The silver second-place medals went to Ralph Gher's team, and the bronze third-place ones to Merrill Alexander's. Bob Root, statistician, Jack Kennedy and Joe Ted Miller, scorers, Ralph Halberstadt, Bill Klingelhoffer, and Clyde Webster, officials, as well as Mr. Youmans and Coach Stephens, were all necessary to the tournament.

Squatting—R. Green (Captain).
Standing—Ronald Seymour, Irwin Dilley, Pete Sadler, Eugene Wilson.

Squatting—Merrill Alexander (Captain).
Standing—Jim Tabaka, Merton Alexander, Dick Kirby, Roger Stewart, Jim Harney.

Girls' Sports

The freshman-sophomore physical education classes this year were so full of pleasant, varied activities that they seemed like recreation hours rather than class work. Directed by Miss Kathryn Frentzel, these classes, which included swimming, volleyball, baseball, and tennis, helped to build up the girls' bodies by physical competition. Along with these games, posture exercises and dancing were taught to aid the girls in gaining social poise.

G. A. A.

G. A. A., the club for girls interested in sports, maintained a dizzy pace all year. As soon as we were organized, and became acquainted at the "Buddy Picnic," horseback riding, hiking, bowling, bicycling, and basketball filled the calendar. Winter set in, and swimming and skating took the spotlight. With spring a fuller schedule was resumed, with volleyball, then our new addition—badminton, tennis, archery, golf, and baseball. Not content with staying in our own back yard, we sent a few of our members to various playdays of neighboring G. A. A. organizations.

Officers this year have been Marilyn Kerr, president; Dorothy Emsing, vice-president; Betty Jo Lykins, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Stevens, assistant secretary-treasurer.

Row 1—Hauser, McClellan, Bosley, B. Brown, Cuskaden, Farlow, MacDougle, Givens, Bantz, V. Bean, B. Birt, Franklin, Keilholz, Lang, Dixon, Hindman.

GIRLS' "U" CLUB: Row 1—Birt, A. Koehler, Brown, Reinholt, Roughton, Himes, Wrather, Lantz, Warren.

Row 2 — Emsing, Lykins, Corkery, Stevens, Sieferman, Wilson, Sheib, Cook.

Row 3 — Potter, Scott, Chesnut, Radebaugh, C. Koehler, Huelsen, Harvey, Kerr, Fletcher.

Row 4—Pettys, Bauer, Dietz, Doran, Gher, Snyder, Powers, Powell, Richart.

The idea of a club for the girls who have earned their letters was conceived last year, and we put it into effect this year. We call it simply "The Girls' 'U' Club." Our initial membership was approximately twenty-five. In March, when, luckily, we had the Junior play scenery for a background, we displayed spring clothes from Willis' and Penney's. This was so successful that we decided, in May, to show some of Kaufman's summer togs.

Our officers were Dorothy Emsing, president; Dorothy Harvey, vice-president; Lois Doran, secretary-treasurer; Dorothy Freeman, program chairman.

Managers play an important part in the G. A. A. program. Each manager has complete charge of her particular sport. Making tournament schedules, making out teams, directing the tournaments, and writing a report of the sport at the end of the season completes the manager's job.

Valedictory

This is one of the last times that we shall be assembled as a group. We have gone through our four years here together. Today we are members of a group; tomorrow we shall be ourselves. We shall be judged and thought of, not just as a member of such and such a class or group, but as ourselves. Upon our personal merits we shall be judged.

We are not facing the future suddenly, but, whether we have realized it or not, we have been guided carefully by our parents and teachers. At home and in the classroom we have received various ideas on problems of life and relations with others. From our studies we have derived principles around which our characters have been molded; from music, ways of expressing our emotions; from athletics, ideals of sportsmanship and cooperation; from drama, poise and resourcefulness. We have been acquainting ourselves with what we will meet when we are forced to make our own choices, for, while our experiences in high school are a preparation for life, they are also life itself.

Not many of us shall be famous, but everyone of us may be successful. If we strive to attain the goals that we have set up, "therein the honor lies." We all shall be servants of some ideal, whether desire for power, for money, for family, or for mankind, and our lives shall be indelibly colored by our ideal.

We shall have to make choices now; are our efforts from now on to be centered on our own selves, or are they to be centered upon others? May we remember that those who have received the greatest honors for what they have done for mankind, set out with the hope of bettering the lot of others, not for the bettering of their own welfare. Our efforts may bring about world peace and social brotherhood. There is hope for tomorrow. The sun will rise, remember, and it may cast its rays upon a better world because we were here. We must choose wisely and carefully, for we are building for eternity. Let us ask the help of The Creator as we make these all important decisions.

Salutatory

Tonight we are saying goodbye to the place where we have spent four of the happiest years of our lives. We are saying goodbye to you, dear Urbana High, to your teachers and students. We also know we are saying farewell to our classmates, many of whom we will never see again.

This is a moment of sadness, for we know that we have completed one phase of our life—our adolescence. Now we are to be considered young men and women, and we must assume their responsibilities. Many of us are not yet ready to become independent; we must study further in order to prepare ourselves.

The remainder of us have completed our formal education and are ready to find our place in life. We, in this latter group, consider the future a little more doubtfully because we've never tried being self-sufficient. The others are delaying this moment somewhat by continuing their studies; but they, too, will experience this feeling some day.

The future seems rather uncertain, but we members of the Class of 1941 know that we can face that future. We've laughed when our team won and cried when it lost; we've been serious in our classes, cooperative in our club work, and gay at our parties. We may not have realized it, but in the past four years our characters have been molded —we've been formed into individuals, each with a separate set of standards.

We owe much to our teachers for aiding in the development of our character. They have unceasingly aided us—helped us in trouble, backed us in our enterprises, and guided us in the choice of our courses. They have been friends to us; they have been human, laughing and joking in some of the assemblies just like one of us.

Now, we bid farewell to you, dear school. We leave your building more worn, your teachers more frustrated, and your trophy cases more nearly filled. We take with us pleasant memories, lasting friendships, and richer knowledge; and we go out to face the world with a smile.

Class Statistics

In September, 1937, over 200 freshmen trooped into Urbana High School, and now 165 of us will soon be trooping out again on June 6, 1941.

Our class officers that first year were: president, Bob Flewelling; vice-president, Jacquie Scott; secretary-treasurer, Joan Radebaugh; Rosemary representative, Vivian Crane.

That freshman year was the beginning of the scholastic honoraries and Sagamore. In Alpha we had 27 members and practically this entire group is on the roster of Alpha Psi Omega of 1941.

In the fall of 1939 we stepped up a grade, and were enthusiastic sophomores, interested in organizations, athletics, music, and dramatics. Our officers were: president, Dick Phillips; vice-president, Vivian Crane; secretary and treasurer, Mary Lou Pettys; Rosemary representative, Dorothy Emsing.

In athletics we have our "U" winners, which started Fred Werts on his way to the "U" Club presidency, and some of our members stepped from the freshman-sophomore group into the varsity, such as Werts, Phillips, and Cobb.

The Junior Year! Mary Lou Pettys was our president; Max Kelley, vice-president; Jacquie Scott, secretary; Vivian Crane, treasurer; Dorothy Harvey, Rosemary representative.

The Junior Class play, "Little Women," under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Turnell, was a success, with Betty Jo Lykins, Betty Dunn, Virginia Gher, Bonnie Chesnut, Mary Lou Pettys, Benny Clark, Marie Ivens, Jack Shafer, and Bill Severns in the cast.

We were quite proud of our Junior-Senior Prom at the Urbana Country Club with Mary Lou Pettys and her escort leading the grand march—the music was good, the programs pretty.

Seniors—yes, we are the Seniors, and we hope that we will leave some ideals, goals, and aims that the underclassmen will strive to attain. We have been leaders in activities and we have tried to assume responsibilities.

Senior class officers were: Max Kelley, president; John Cobb, vice-president; Clyde Rusk, treasurer; Chuck Wikoff, secretary; Marilyn Kerr, Rosemary representative.

In athletics we have had many honors given to us, and many trophies to place in the trophy case; we are proud of these honors.

In dramatics we gave the play, "Captain Applejack," as our Senior Play, and several who had played in the Junior Class play were in the cast. Others in the cast were: Billy Steffy, Dale Wright, Paul Lawrence, Gordon Avison, Ray Howser, and Alva Huelsen.

We have 31 members in Alpha Psi Omega; four valedictorians, Margaret Robbins, Ruth Whitson, Merton Alexander, and Carol Koehler, while Alva Huelsen is salutatorian. We have had honors in music, band, and chorus. In Sagamore, senior activity organization, we had 46 members. Now, as we leave we feel that in some respects we might have done better, but we trust that the underclassmen will follow our best examples, and that they will strive in attaining high honors in scholarship, athletics, and activities, and we wish them good luck in all that they do.

Class Will

Time marches on and so do we, the rollicking and robust seniors of 1941. Realizing that no longer shall we grace the halls of Urbana High, we do declare and publish this, our last will and testament, which shall forever be passed down to posterity.

First in importance, we leave the mice of Urbana High to all the pupils and teacher to nibble upon.

To the oncoming seniors we give some departing advice—break up all of your little sub-deb clubs and all other cliques to have a really successful year.

To the sophomore girls we don't leave, but take, our senior men with us.

To the freshmen we leave our idiosyncrasies and potency.

No need to leave Miss Frentzel anything but "Congratulations," for she will be leaving with us.

Eugene "Ladies' Man" Conn hurriedly departs in search of new small towns.

Vivian Crane bequeaths her undying enthusiasm to Phyllis Wrather.

Pauline Dietz, Marjorie Basden, Joan Parker, Alberta Boughers, and all other forlorn lassies leave for the army men.

Bob Bell shall receive Russell Wessells' tubing ability, while Nelson Walden will get his tact with the women—(incidentally, neither of the boys need these two assets).

Betty Carpenter leaves her little sister to carry on the gossip column.

Perhaps Kay Seed would like Miriam Potter's tennis ability, while we know Virginia Bauer would appreciate Mary Lou Pettys' perseverance in working on the Rosemary.

Joan Radebaugh leaves for Grant Hospital where she will become a nurse and take care of the little ones.

John Cobb leaves, taking his pants with him—we hope.

Chuck Spaeth wills his soberness to Bob Anderson with the hope that it will settle him down a bit.

The art that Dot O'Donnell has acquired in getting university men is left to Ruth Ann O'Dell.

Gerry Snyder leaves for the campus.

Just listen to the following list of articles we, the unforgettable seniors, leave to Mrs. H.: ten mouse traps; a dollar's worth of nuts (this will make up for the ones we snitched); a stage-craft class that will excel our seventh hour one; some bigger wigs; a box of aspirins for good measure.

Mary Miller, Mary Goens, Julia Ambos, Shirley Saltsgaver and Virginia Cook throw their quietness onto the noisy freshmen—Shirley Kellogg in particular.

Alva Huelsen wills her galoshes to all future senior girls to be used in spring rushing in case it rains. Don't forget to take them off at the door.

Jack "Grandpa" Shafer willingly gives Karl Aron his dramatic ability.

I, the handsome Romeo of the senior class, Dick Phillips, give Bob Glascock my coquette heart! Say, Bob, what fun you'll have in breaking all the pretty little girls' hearts.

Class Will

Tommy Kinnear hates to depart with his hatchet, but it must be used in next year's oration.

We all sorrowfully leave Miss Cade, our swell senior adviser.

Bill Ingalls bequeaths his skating efficiency to Martha Grant and Mary Mirth Wallace.

Ralph Helmericks, Melvin Griesheimer, Paul Lawrence, Duane Hall, and Max Bunn depart for better or worse—glad to go.

Eugene Jones wishes to give Dick Wikoff his love for the younger girls.

Jean Wilcox and Helen Skroder will their laughter to the future sober-sides.

The beautiful hands of Gwen Davis are to be left to all the girls.

Garen Harmon leaves a fine impression on Miss Lawson.

The speech capacity of one, Charlie Bowen, is to be left to anyone who might need it—Phyllis Brown in particular.

Dale Robert's curly hair is to be left to Shirley Hindman.

Lyle Thompson and Roy Mumm's bashfulness needs to go to Wayne "Windy" Howser.

The fine pictures that Gordon Avison and David Yazell take are left to Mr. Skidmore to be used as examples of fine photography.

We forgot to mention that we leave Hank Bothwell rocking the cradle.

Being of sound mind and body, and capable of all our faculties, we do hereby release this document on the fifth day of June, the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred forty-one.

Signed, sealed, and approved,

The Conscientious Seniors!

Basketball

When Fred left the game on fouls the ovation was immense. This victory spotted Urbana as one of the four teams which were to play at Huff gym.

Here, the Tigers, who were the longest little shots to reach the finals in 5 years, drew Canton, and in a characteristic rally which led the game into overtime, Urbana erased Canton, 39-38. Leal Nelson's play under fire with his overtime basket gave Urbana its victory. The fighting Tigers, missing Fred Green in the last few minutes of play, bowed 32-31 to Morton. The Tigers with Fred Green in the lineup looked sure to win until Fred went to the bench with four fouls. Nevertheless, the game was a glorious exhibition of perfect team work, grit, and fight-to-the-last, by a grand team!

Beaten by only one point for the state championship is a great honor for any team and the Tigers were the gamest bunch of boys there ever was. Fellows like Fred Green do not come along even once in a decade. His play gave him a place on the all-state team. The other seniors Franklin, Nelson, and Rusk all gave splendid play, Franklin as a feeder, Nelson, with his spirit and determination, and Rusk's all-round play. Cool-nerved Bob Gibson gave many polished performances and his play was invaluable. Nelson Walden, scrappy reserve, turned in some fine play, as did George Widing, Green's understudy. The rest of the first team, Stone, Grant, and Kinder, all performed ably when called upon.

So was completed Urbana's most successful season in basketball, for no other U. H. S. team has gone as far in tournament competition. Urbana is proud of them, they have set an example for the whole state. They have proved what spirit can do and have left a tradition that will never be forgotten. Hurrah for Steve and his Tigers of 1941!

YEAR AFTER YEAR WE HAVE BEEN TOLD OF THE EXCELLENCE OF OUR REPRODUCTION OF YEARBOOK COPY, AND YEAR AFTER YEAR WE HAVE QUOTED THOSE COMPLIMENTS. WE FEEL THAT SUCH REPETITION MIGHT EASILY BECOME MONOTONOUS—YET—IT EMBODIES JUST ABOUT ALL THAT CAN BE SAID IN FAVOR OF ANY PRINTING PLATE.

NATURALLY, YOU TAKE GREAT PRIDE IN YOUR YEAR BOOK. IT IS WORTHY OF CAREFUL WORKMANSHIP, AND THIS ORGANIZATION IS NO NEWCOMER TO THE RANKS OF THOSE WHO TAKE GREAT PRIDE IN OUTSTANDING ACCOMPLISHMENT.
